
Planning the Completion of your Dissertation

Trainer: Mark Edwards / Svenja Neupert

Duration: 1 day / 2 days

Language: English

A concentrated and well-structured finish to achieve your goal

Towards the end of your doctoral study many questions arise, which are discussed in this module. The course addresses the many factors affecting the effective structuring of the final phase of your doctorate, and focusses on proven methods that will form the framework of clear future perspectives for the period after the successful dissertation.

Content

- Structure of the final phase in terms of focus, priorities, and scheduling
- Planning and focussing on the writing process and the correction phase
- Dismantling practical and psychological barriers to writing
- Strategic issues for co-operation partners and supervisors during and after the dissertation
- Self-representation as an expert in the chosen research field and in the post-PhD market
- Positioning platforms & further career development
- Networking skills

Methods

The seminar comprises inspirational input, lively and challenging exercises, small group work and group discussion. An exciting learning atmosphere is created, and sustainable results obtained.